of pressing his suit with fair Theresa. Her story is that Tom called upon her in Her story is that Tom called upon her in Dublin and showed her a letter purporting to come from her father, telling her to follow the instructions of the bearer.

Tom told her that her father wanted her to come to America with him. She had 250 and they took passage on board the Ethiopia.

When they were iarout of sight of land Tom told her that the letter was only a ruse to get her away from his rival and pleaded his love as an excuse for the deception.

She had $100 left when she landed at Ellis Island. She made no trouble for Sammon, but sent him off with a scathing reluke for having deceived her.

Father Callaghan, of the Mission for limmigrant Girls, heard her story and took charge of Miss Kreighey until Miss Theresa Costello, a cousin who lives in Brooklyn, called last night and took her home.
